EDITORIAL - "Be Helpful"

The very bases of our club is to "be helpful" to those in need on a charitable basis – and of course enjoy the fraternity of the other members.

However, with the daily pressures and problems it is all too easy to just tick the box and think "Well I've done my bit".

Numerous studies have shown that people with a core value of "being helpful" have a significantly more satisfying and enjoyable life with one study attributing a significant increase in lifespan to those who consciously practice being helpful.

Often it is the little things that matter most.

- 1) Listen to people talk and reply constructively
- 2) Rather than "Can I help" – be specific "Can I carry those groceries to your car".
- 3) Don't keep score and always be sincere and positive with advice.
- 4) If you agree to help with a task – get it done – don't stress the recipient with then wondering when or it will be done.

Mistake for the Proof Readers – (No replies again!)

Editorial - "tome" instead of "time".

Recipe – "Wisk" instead of "Whisk"

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY - This month - Bad Jokes

What's the difference between a poorly dressed man on a tricycle and a well-dressed man on a bicycle? Attire!

To whoever stole my copy of Microsoft Office, I will find you. You have my Word!

My friend says to me, "What rhymes with orange?" And I told him, No it doesn't".

Did you hear about the Italian chef who died? He pasta way!

The difference between a numerator and a denominator is a short line. Only a fraction of people will understand this!

What's orange and sounds like a parrot? A carrot!

A cheese factory exploded in France. Da brie is everywhere!

PRESIDENT: Lachlan's Pontifications

Let me be first to congratulate Ray on his nuptials held earlier this month, which made me think about the importance of patience. Something seldom found in men, and never in women. Certainly in the case of Ray, it has proven to have served him extremely well, as it is clear he has found happiness and contentment with Susan. Congratulations to you both. A lesson for us all though, be it business, love or other... You usually have to wait for that which is worth waiting for.

Lachlan Rankine – Club 261 Ph: 0417 621 234

RECIPE FOR MONTH –Baked Lobster Tails with garlic butter

Ingredients

4 lobster tails – smaller (Woolworths occasionally has canadian tails @ $7.50/each)

5 cloves garlic, minced

¼ cup grated parmesan + more for serving

Juice of 1 lemon

1 tsp Italian seasoning or touch salt & pepper

6 tbsps melted butter

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 180°C. In a medium bowl, mix garlic, parmesan, Italian seasoning, and melted butter and season with salt.
2. Using sharp scissors, cut the clear skin off the lobster and generously brush the lobster tails with the garlic butter seasoning.
3. Place the lobster tails on a baking sheet lined with parchment and bake the lobster tails for 15 minutes or 1½ min/oz. The lobster meat inside will be firm and opaque. Internal temperature should read 60 to 65 degrees C.

(My wife says it's the best meal she has every had!)
